Open and closed sets define a topology for a net, which formalises the notion of vicinity of elements with respect to the graphical structure.